

Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance Presents

Introduction to the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission

What is the IIPRC?

The Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission (IIPRC) enhances the efficiency and effectiveness of the way life insurance, annuities, disability income, and long-term care insurance products are reviewed and approved. The IIPRC leverages state regulatory expertise in developing national product standards and a speed-to-market platform while continuing to ensure high level of consumer protection.

Program:

Charles Rapacciuolo, Development Consultant for the IPRC, will present an overview of the interstate compact to members of Tennessee's insurance industry and demonstrate how the IIPRC can simplify day-to-day business functions.

January 28, 2009
10:00 a.m. Central Time
Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance
500 James Robertson Parkway, Room 160
Nashville, TN

Who Should Attend and Why?

Insurance product filing professionals, compliance staff, legal staff, actuarial staff, and government relations representatives

There is no cost to attend. Representatives from the Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance will be on hand to answer questions.

Questions may be directed to Shawn Kiser Hawk at 615-532-1122 or shawn.hawk@tn.gov.